“The practical knowledge that was imparted by the presenters and the case study exercise taught me that when looking at a problem collectively with like-minded participants, you can achieve better results.”

Register Now for the Management Development Seminar I: Leading from the Middle

This seminar was created for managers who have been recently promoted to second-line supervision and experienced first-line supervisors who are seeking to update their management skills and knowledge.

Managers have a great deal of responsibility for government productivity and performance, especially managers of supervisors and those with oversight of groups and programs. As a key leader in your organization, your challenges are complex, and your leadership is integral to your agency's success. This program is a vital step in your development.

Learn How to Lead from the Middle

- Learn and apply tools for improving skills in conflict resolution and problem solving.
- Increase your self-knowledge and leadership capacity through critical thinking, exploring strengths theory and examining change models.
- Solve a real management challenge through a small group action learning process.
- View your leadership role through Constitutional values and courageous relationships.
- Examine your own ways of thinking and how they influence behavior.
- Learn new ways to develop and deploy your staff.
- Build peer networks across Federal agencies.

“The new tools the course provided deepened my self-awareness about how I go about work.”
